

JOHN SU

Barrister | University Chambers
E: john.su@universitychambers.com.au
M: 0416 411 225
T: (02) 8227 4400

EDUCATION AND QUALIFICATIONS

The University of Sydney

Bachelor of Science (Advanced Mathematics) (Honours Class I)	2019
Bachelor of Laws	2021

The College of Law

Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice	2022
---	------

Admissions

Called to the Bar of New South Wales	2025
Lawyer, High Court of Australia	2023
Lawyer, Supreme Court of New South Wales	2022

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Barrister University Chambers	2025 - Present
---	----------------

Solicitor King & Wood Mallesons	2022 - 2024
---	-------------

Dispute Resolution – Construction

Other rotations: Real Estate, Taxation

Law Graduate Corrs Chambers Westgarth	2022
---	------

Commercial Litigation and Class Actions

Captain Australian Army Reserve	2024 - Present
---	----------------

Instructor, Sydney University Regiment
Currently hold an NV2 security clearance

Previously: Lieutenant (2020 – 2024), Officer Cadet (2017 – 2020)

LANGUAGES

English, Chinese (Conversational Mandarin and Cantonese)

MEMBERSHIPS AND PROFESSIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

NSW Bar Association	2025 - Present
Asian Australian Lawyers Association	2025 – Present

CASE LIST

SELECTED CASES AS A SOLICITOR

- Confidential arbitration conducted under the ACICA rules concerning a major construction dispute involving a hospital.
- Martinus Rail Pty Ltd v Qube RE Services (No.2) Pty Ltd [2025] NSWCA 49. Case concerned judicial review of whether adjudication under the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 1999 was affected by jurisdictional error.
- Martinus Rail Pty Ltd v Qube RE Services (No 2) Pty Ltd (No 3) [2024] NSWSC 1483. Case concerned adjudicator's obligation to consider submissions under the Building and Construction Industry Security of Payment Act 1999.
- Assisted in the preparation of evidence in a large-scale construction dispute in NSWSC involving a major railway project in NSW.